Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
7860, Headquarters

Dear Admiral Turner,

STAT At 1130 on 7 March 1980, CRD will STAT honor its first and present Chief, Gale W. Allen, and two branch chiefs [redacted] and [redacted] at a retirement luncheon at Ft. Myer Officers Club. These men have given over 95 years of service to the CIA serving in all four directorates. CRD is a young division, just over STAT two years old, and these men have guided it STAT through growing pains until today we have [redacted] people on board plus [redacted] annuitants, all helping with the review of Agency records.
STAT Deputy Director for Administration Wortman has expressed his desire to attend [redacted]

C/ISS/DDA, will be MTC, and it was for me.
you, as our director, and Mrs. Turner might enjoy attending and mixing with the "troops." We are including families and hoping to make this a special affair. If possible, we would like you to offer the invocation before the meal, maybe with special remembrance of our people in Iran.

We know you are carrying a tremendous responsibility now, but we would be honored if you could find the time to attend.

Very sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]

(Committee Chairman)

P.S. Since Mr. Allen worked on a fire crew in Blackduck, Minn. for the U.S. Forest Service back in 1939, Smokey Bear has consented to come by and give our retirees a few farewell words on fire prevention and designate them as Junior Foresters.

The Director
